SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT:

Superintendent Kelly Herron reported that the Schoenbrunn Meadow brochure was mailed out with the September water bills and he has already received 3 phone calls and made 1 niche sale as a response. He hopes the trend will continue as residents receive the brochures.

The foundations have been poured for the columns at the entrance of Schoenbrunn Meadow Cemetery. Herron said that Norm Thurman is expected to begin laying block today.

Superintendent Herron received a quote of $2,100 from Kendall Mast for repairs to the fence at the Fair Avenue Cemetery, which was damaged during a recent storm. He also said that his gas budget is running low for this year, and he will be allowing more for fuel in next year's budget, as gas prices are expected to remain high.
